

Dynamic Leadership

Dynamic Leadership is a national FCCLA program that helps young people build leadership skills. It provides information, activities, and project ideas. The program helps young people:

- learn about leadership
- recognize the lifelong benefits of leadership skills
- practice leadership skills through FCCLA involvement
- become strong leaders for families, careers, and communities.

Dynamic Leadership Units:

Dynamic leaders master six units of leadership—

- Model good character
- Solve problems
- Foster positive relationships
- Manage conflict
- Build teams
- Educate peers.

These leadership units are sparked by studies in Family and Consumer Sciences Education. They are ignited by experience with hands-on FCCLA projects and leadership roles. They are fueled by continued growth and learning to fan a lifelong flame of Dynamic Leadership.

Awards:

National FCCLA recognizes students at the Leadership Achievement level for completing a Leadership Achievement project in all six units of Dynamic Leadership. National recognition can also be earned at the Leadership Excellence level for completing a Leadership Excellence project in all six units of Dynamic Leadership.

Deadline: Award Applications due to FCCLA national headquarters postmarked by April 1.

Recognition for involvement with Dynamic Leadership is also managed by the local chapter adviser.
